

Taste It!

When you put a food in your mouth you use your sense of taste. The sense of taste is one of the five senses used by human beings to understand and explore the world around them.

Look at the tongue below. Then look at the pictures of foods. Cut the food pictures and paste them on the appropriate section of the tongue, depending on how they taste.

